1. An electric power plant located at Obrovac, near Split, was sabotaged and considerably damaged by Cominformists during the night from 27 to 28 September 1949.
2. On 28 September, a Yugoslav motor torpedo boat struck a mine and sank five miles off Zadar on the Yugoslav coast.
3. The Morlacca channel between Novi and Razance was recently mined during the course of naval training maneuvers. As of 28 September, the channel had not yet been cleared of these mines.
4. Following the disclosure of an attempt on Marshal Tito's life, which involved the placing of a bomb on his personal motor launch at Pola, a general round-up of Cominformists was effected by the Yugoslav Police on 29 September. The arrests numbered 22 in Sarajevo, 40 in Mostar, 11 in Fiume and 57 in Pola.
